DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-5 and 11, drawn to a method for treating a polyacrylonitrile fiber containing vinyl acetate as a co-monomer comprising contacting the fiber with an enzyme solution to increase the number of hydrophilic hydroxyl groups on the fiber.

Group II, claim(s) 6-10 and 11, drawn to a method of treating a polyamide fiber comprising contacting the fiber with an enzyme solution to increase the number of hydrophilic amino groups on the fiber.

The inventions as listed in Groups I and II do not related to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The lack inventive unity because they are drawn to two methods that do not make the same product and do not require the same steps or starting materials. The methods as claimed do not overlap in scope.

An international or national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories: (1) a product and process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; (2) a product and process of use of said product; (3) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; (4) a process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or (5) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out said process. If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims See 37 CFR 1.475.

In this case, the claims recite two distinct methods which does not meet any of the categories as named above. Furthermore, Groups I and II start with different classes of polymeric substrates that interact with an enzyme to produce different effects. The invention of Group I is directed to increasing the number of hydroxyl groups on a polyacrylonitrile fiber while the invention of Group II is directed to increasing the number of amino groups on a polyamide fiber.

All that is shared by the methods as claimed is that fibers are contacted with an enzyme. This was known at the time of the invention, For example, US 6,066,494 (cited in the IDS filed 4/25/06) discloses the treatment of textile materials such as polyamides with an enzyme (col. 10, lines 43-64).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
